Rev. Alfred Young. I. O. O. F.—There was an unusually large attendance at the regular weekly meeting of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows last night. Besides their own members delegations were present from several other lodges, the occasion being the official visitation to Potomac Lodge of State Lecturer Major E. B. Brauch, of Petersburg. After the usual routine of lodge work the degree staff conferred the first degree in good style, after which the silver-tongued orator of Potomac Lodge, Grand Representative D. R. Stansbury, in a neat and appropriate little speech, introduced orator of the evening, Major Branch, who, after expressing his pleasure in meeting so large a number of Odd Fellows and complimenting the degree work, proceeded to deliver one of the quent and instructive addresses on Odd Fellowship heard in Potomac Lodge for a long time and was listened to with rapt attention thoughout his address which lasted about an hour. At the conclusion of his speech Major Branch exemplified the unwritten work of the order in a manner seldom equaled and never excelled, and thereby et and never excelled, and thereby enlighted a good many of the members in that branch of Odd Fellowship. His visit was highly appreciated as was at-tested by the hearty welcome accorded him. After exemplification of the un-written work the lodge resolved itself into a social gathering at which anec dotes and speech-making were the pre-dominating features. The recitation "The Old Man and the Odd Fellow's Parade," was well rendered by Mr.

THE RACES.-Five favorites and a second choice took first money at the St. Asaph track yesterday. Two records were made, and a dead-heat marked the six furlong event. The betting was brisk, and the number of heaks and the number of books was swelled to twenty-three. The second race proved an exciting event, as Little Billy and Old Dominion were so close at the wire that the judges would not separate them and called it a dead heat. In the run-off Old Domion led all the way, but only succeeded in defeating Little Billy, who pulled out lame, by a Twenty-three bookmakers and about 2.500 persons were present.

A QUESTION OF JURISDICTION .- A negro named William Gallery, who owed a lodging bill to Rebecca Quill, colored, last night told her if her daughter Nettie would accompany him to the riverside where a sand scow on which he was employed was stationed he would pay the bill. When he and the girl reached the spot he made an assault on her and picking up a brick in each hand told her if she didn't get out of the neighborhood he would kill her and throw her body overboard. Sha left and procured a warrant for his ar-rest. Officers Smith and Beach went after Gallery and found him on the sand scow, and when he was told the nature of their business he said he did not care for their warrant, as he was outside of their jurisdiction. The officers made no further reply but conducted him to the station house. This morning, when brought before Mayor Strauss, he did not denythe assault, but again insisted that the authorities had no jurisdiction in the case. The Mayor thought they had and fined him $7, and if he fails to pay that sum he will go on the chain gang.

CLOAK DEPARTMENT.

Cloth and plush capes, cloth jackets and cloaks. All garments in stock are strictly first-class as to make and styleno old styles from last season. The big cloak strike makes cloaks scarce and hard to get, and values we now have in stock will not be duplicated.
